Nobel Committee
Drammensveien No. 19
Oslo, Norway

Dear Committee Members:

It is a pleasure for me to write you on behalf of Elie Wiesel whom I would like to recommend as a recipient for the Nobel Peace Prize. This award would be a particularly fitting recognition of this distinguished author's tremendous contributions in promoting world peace.

Elie Wiesel's outstanding writings on the Holocaust have helped people throughout the world focus on and absorb the true horror of the Nazi concentration camps. His life has been devoted to telling the story of the millions who died with the hope that such violence and hatred never again appear in the world.

I enthusiastically support Elie Wiesel for this distinguished honor and want to thank the members of the Committee for their thoughtful consideration.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
